

biopic hopeton shaw

Hopeton Shaw is an accredited psychotherapist with the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy (UKCP). He is also a professional member of the School of Psychotherapy and Counselling at Regent's College, and the British Association for Sexual Health and HIV. He currently works in the National Health Service and is a fellow practitioner in the TALK: Psychotherapy group practice.

Over the past 8 years, Hopeton has provided support for people presenting with variety of concerns, including depression, bereavement, panic attacks, substance abuse, obsessive compulsive disorders, cross-cultural issues, low-self esteem and relationship problems. He has extensive experience and specialist knowledge in working with individuals around issues of sexual health, sexuality, sexual assault, abuse and addiction.

Hopeton Shaw has co-authored papers for the International Journal of STD and AIDS and for the Healthcare Counselling and Psychotherapy Journal (HCPJ).

Room 625 | Linen Hall | 162-168 Regent Street | London W1B 5TG
+44 (0)207 635 6480
www.talkpsychotherapy.co.uk

click here to email